

CALL FOR LATINA AND LATINO ARTISTS BASED IN NORTH CAROLINA

The University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill

The FedEx Global Education Center at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill seeks proposals for a fall 2020 art exhibition from Latina and Latino artists based in North Carolina to celebrate the breadth and diversity of artists who call North Carolina home. Artwork will be displayed from mid-August through December 2020. Artists using paint, sculpture, textile, photography and other mediums are welcome to submit proposals.

Each semester, UNC Global features the works of global artists in exhibitions that touch on a variety of themes and topics. The exhibits offer perspectives from a range of places, histories and peoples, but convey themes that are universal. Artwork is displayed from the first to the third floor of the FedEx Global Education Center at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill to inspire the Carolina community and further infuse a global dimension throughout the University's teaching and research.

UNC Global considers submissions in accordance with the following priorities:

- We seek Latina/o artists based in North Carolina creating through any number of mediums, including but not limited to painting, photography, sculpture and textiles.
- We encourage works with an educational dimension consistent with the mission of the FedEx Global Education Center.

All artists must submit the following:

- Resume
- Artist's statement
- 10 to 15 images of the proposed pieces, accompanying text, dimensions of pieces and explanation of how pieces will be displayed (discuss framing, mounting, etc.)

Submission:

Proposals should be submitted to Ingrid Smith, manager of global events and exhibitions for UNC Global, at ingrid.smith@unc.edu.

Proposals will be accepted until March 24, 2020. Artists should expect a decision within six to eight weeks.

Submissions will be reviewed by a committee comprised of members of the Institute for the Study of the Americas, UNC Global, as well as UNC-Chapel Hill faculty, staff and students from across campus.
